

HOW TO ORGANIZE A CAMPUS-WIDE COURSE REDESIGN PROGRAM USING NCAT'S METHODOLOGY

Table of Contents

- Introduction
- I. The Critical Components of a Successful Course Redesign Program
- II. Assessing Institutional Readiness to Redesign
- III. Making Key Decisions before the Program's Launch
- IV. Developing a Plan of Work
- V. Building Awareness and Capacity
- VI. Assessing Course Readiness
- VII. Preparing Teams to Submit Strong Proposals
- VIII. Selecting Proposals That Will Succeed
- IX. Monitoring the Redesign Implementations
- X. Maintaining Consensus and Ensuring Sustainability
- XI. Building Capacity and Scaling Initial Success

Appendices:

- A. Plan of Work
- B. Publicity Plan
- C. Call to Participate
- D. Application Guidelines
- E. Workshop I Agenda
- F. Workshop II Homework
- G. Workshop Logistics
- H. Workshop II Agenda
- I. Workshop III Invitation
- J. Workshop III Agenda
- K. Workshop IV Invitation
- L. Workshop IV Agenda
- M. Final Report Format
- N. Program Evaluation